

It's your right to receive services in French from the Government of Ontario.

If your experience with public services in French (online, in writing, over the phone, or in person) is unsatisfactory, let us know.

It's easy, free and confidential.

Official Ontario documents
(Health card, driver's licence, etc.)

Government assistance
(Housing, employment, etc.)

Health and justice services

Government information, and more...

Carl Bouchard
French Language
Services
Commissioner

The French Language Services Commissioner and the French Language Services Unit are part of the Office of the Ontario Ombudsman, an independent and impartial Officer of the Legislature who resolves complaints about government and public sector bodies.