

ONTARIO'S WATCHDOG
CHIEN DE GARDE DE L'ONTARIO

Oversight Undermined – Facts and highlights

Special Investigations Unit

Established 1990

Oversees 58 police forces

Constituting authority: Section 113, Police Services Act.

Number of formal SIU investigations, October 18, 2008- October 31, 2011: 658

Number of cases with police co-operation issues: 227 (more than one-third)

Number of letters by SIU director to police chiefs regarding co-operation issues: 227

Number of substantive responses: 20

Examples of co-operation issues (See also chart on page 48 of report)

Cases where SIU was notified late or not at all: 50

- OPP, September 2008: Officer breaks man's nose and own arm – SIU not notified for two months (paragraphs 41 and 129)
- Toronto, March 2009: Man Tasered four times, face fractured – SIU not notified (paragraph 40)
- Niagara, April 2009: Man with septic poisoning in cell, on life support – SIU not notified (paragraph 41)
- Toronto, November 2009: Man sent to hospital, unconscious, head wound – SIU not called for 9 hours (paragraph 40)
- Peel, June 2011: Woman bitten by police dog, ambulance called – SIU not notified (paragraphs 42 and 124)

Cases where SIU found interference with officer note-taking and/or officers refused to discuss note preparation: 180

- OPP, June 2009: Douglas Minty shot dead, officers told not to make notes until speaking to lawyer; same lawyer for subject and witness officers (paragraphs 1, 58-60 and throughout the report)
- OPP, June 2009: Levi Schaeffer shot dead, officers gave draft notes to lawyer but not SIU; same lawyer for subject officers and 10 others (paragraphs 1, 61-64 and throughout the report)
- OPP, June 2010: Woman shot, officers told to “do notes to counsel” next day (paragraphs 102 and 142)
- Ottawa, June 2010: 19-year-old man shot, lawyer spoke to all witness officers and “okayed all submissions” (paragraphs 102 and 144)

Cases where SIU found other problems with co-operation (e.g., denied access to scene) and/or police conduct: 60

- Thunder Bay, February 2009: Male officer cut clothing off 15-year-old aboriginal girl; others watched strip search, appeared to breach prisoner handling policy (paragraph 127)
- OPP, May 2010: SIU investigators were refused access to fatal shooting scene, spoke to witnesses (paragraph 119)
- York, May 2011: Officers fired 18 times at suspect in stolen vehicle, appeared to breach pursuit policy (paragraph 130)
- Toronto, August 2011: Repeated sexual assault cases involving same unit (paragraphs 131 and 142)

Key dates

- June 2007: Ombudsman launches first investigation into effectiveness of SIU
- September 30, 2008: Ombudsman releases investigative report, Oversight Unseen
- October 16, 2008: Ian Scott assumes duties as new Director of SIU
- June 2009: Douglas Minty and Levi Schaeffer killed by police, two days apart
- November 2009: Minty and Schaeffer families go to court over involvement of lawyers in police note-taking and other issues related to SIU investigations
- December 2009: Ministry of Attorney General engages Hon. Patrick LeSage
- September 27, 2010: Ombudsman informs Ministry of new investigation
- April 7, 2011: LeSage recommendations released
- August 1, 2011: Regulation on three LeSage recommendations comes into force
- November 15, 2011: Ontario Court of Appeal decision in Minty/Schaeffer case

Main developments in response to recommendations in Oversight Unseen (2008):

- Ministry of the Attorney General allocated $1.3 million in additional funds to SIU
- SIU improved its call-out procedures and equipped investigators with mobile devices
- SIU improved tracking of and response to cases of delayed notification and other issues involving police co-operation
- SIU issued more frequent and more detailed press releases
- SIU added staff with a non-policing background to management, hired additional investigators with a non-policing background and an outreach co-ordinator
- SIU directed all staff not to wear or display police-affiliated symbols
- Protocol developed between Ministry of the Attorney General and Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services regarding issues of police conduct raised by SIU
- Police Services Act regulations amended (August 2011) to prohibit counsel representing both subject and witness officers